Personally appeared before me William B. Harramond one of the Justices of the peace for the said county William B. Harramond who being duly sworn Deposeth and saith - That he has been well acquainted with Mary Barber, the wife of John D Barber, thirteen or fourteen years - That the year 1813 and from that time she has lived in a state of Adultery with three different persons - This defendant further states that she is considered as one of the basest prostitutes and drunkards that can be found and entirely unfit for civilized society - This defendant further states that he does believe that John D Barber always treated her kindly and affectionately while she could be prevailed upon to live with him, and he never did hear the said Barber treated her otherwise than even after she left Barber he declared if she would abandon her course of life and return to him again that he would receive and maintain her - Whether the defendant sayeth not -

I doon to and subscribed before me the 6th day of November 1824 -
